

Ed's Easy Diner has acquired Unit 2 The Piazza, Euston Station and will trade alongside Café Nero and Pret A Manger as one of their 1950's themed American Diners.

The unit which formally traded as Go Sasa offers approximately 1600 sq ft and a new six year lease was agreed with the landlord, Network Rail Infrastructure Limited.

Nick Weir of Shelley Sandzer who handled the deal comments:

'The level footfall at Euston Station was an amazing attraction for Ed's who are confident that this will work well as both a in diner and takeaway for Euston's commuters. Network rail were delighted to attract a brand such as Ed's to compliment its existing line up of quality tenants'.
